MINIATURE GOLF COURSE UNDER CON- STRUCTION ON BEACH

Captain E. W. Drackett and Milton Lasker Are Building
"Brownie."

Construction of another miniature golf course in Bay St. Louis, to consist of 18 holes and to be known as the "Brownie," was begun last week at the corner of North Beach Boulevard and Carroll avenue. The course will be operated by E. W. Drackett, formerly of Bay St. Louis and now of New Orleans, and Milton "Mike" Lasker of New Orleans.

It is being laid out in a grove of cedar trees that will serve both to beautify the course and to act as shade from the sun. The natural location of the course, it is said, will make it one of the most beautiful on the entire Gulf coast. Mr. Drackett, until a few years ago operated the Bay St. Louis-Henderson Point ferry, and more recently, the Oak Street Ferry in New Orleans, announced that he has sold out all his interests on the Mississippi river, and he will thus be able to devote all his time to the golf course. This is the second course of its kind to be built in Bay St. Louis, the first being the "Fiddle-De-Links" on Front street, which is operated by Al Spiess and Junior Blanchard, and has been doing a thriving business since its opening.

American Legion Auxiliary Entertained Four-

Mrs. J. Clancy of Gulfport, was elected president of the Four-County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary at the quarterly meeting held Thursday of last week at the Hotel Weston Annex, Bay St. Louis. All delegates had taken with them sandwiches and the local unit added salad and cold drinks to the menu.

SUNDAY SHOWS IN STATE HALTED BY FILING OF SUIT

Natchez, Miss., June 25.—Mississippi's blue laws, which state-wide interest over the week-end, as multi-tant theaters suddenly closed their doors yesterday in the face of an order suit filed here Saturday by Attorney General George T. Mitchell. The suit directed at the Public Theatres Co., Inc., brought orders from the New Orleans headquarters which directed the closing of Sunday programs here and at Vicksburg, Greenville, Gulfport and Biloxi.

Several theaters previously had operated in violation of the blue laws and some had paid court fines. The suit seeks to enjoin the chain theaters on the ground of "persistent violation" of the Mississippi Sunday laws.

LAYMEN'S RETREAT IS SUCCESS

Men From Different Parts
Of the State—Lasted Two Days and Three Nights

The Third Catholic Laymen's Retreat held in the State of Mississippi, opened Friday night, June 20th, at Bay St. Louis, at St. Stanislaus, Biloxi, and closed Monday morning, June 23, 1930.

The Retreat was a grand success. It was an honor to Holy Mother, the Church, to know that her Laymen left their homes, their businesses and their pleasures for three nights and two days, to spend in religious exercises, meditating on that eternal truth, the most important thing in life—the salvation of their immortal souls.

The Retreat was conducted by that learned and saintly priest, Rev. Father G. Carabajal, S. J., of New Orleans. The following Catholic men attended the Retreat: From Gulfport: G. A. HEALTH IN COUNTY IS SPOKEN OF

Dr. C. M. Shipp Told Rotary Club of His Work as County Health Officer

Dr. C. M. Shipp, Hancock county health officer, was the speaker at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Wednesday at the Hotel Weston. He told of his work in the county among the school children, of the physical examinations made to determine physical defects, the follow up work for correction of the defects, of the efforts made to prevent the spread of contagious diseases among the children. He explained various phases of health control work in the county, stressing the value of preventive measures.

Guests at the luncheon included Captain E. W. Drackett, former Bay resident and now of New Orleans; L. Norman, local agent of the Equitable Insurance Company and Ernest Barber of this same insurance company from Gulfport, the latter a member of the Gulfport Rotary Club.

President C. C. McDonald was in receipt of a telegram from Brother Peter, president-elect of the club, who is in attendance this week with Rotarian Chas. G. Moreau at the Rotary International convention in Chicago. Brother Peter's telegram read: "Substantiating perspiration, and absorbing inspiration."

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY CONDUCTS TRAINING SCHOOL

Three Meetings Have Average of 40,000 Sales, Office
And Service Employees

What has been termed the greatest sales training school in the history of the automobile industry—a series of five meetings conducted over a period of 10 days in each of 12,000 Chevrolet retail stores in the United States, and attended by 24,000 salesmen—has just been completed by the Chevrolet Motor Company. So successful were the meetings that Chevrolet central office officials are considering making the "school" an annual affair. In practically every instance Chevrolet dealers reported their complete sales personnel in attendance for five meetings. In addition the office and service staffs requested and were given permission to attend the sessions. In all, it is estimated that an average of 40,000 sales, office and service employees in Chevrolet retail stores attended the five meetings. Increased selling efficiency by their present staffs, and the addition of many salesmen to their organizations are expected by many dealers as a result of the "school."

The thought behind the school was the belief that the most important factor in the theory of selling and usually are forced to undergo, long experience and overcome many difficulties before they are able to furnish prospective buyers with a fully satisfactory exposition of the car features. The school would immediately put the salesmen in possession of the experiences and methods of the most successful men in the industry.

All phases of the meetings were worked out and the materials prepared by the central office. Holding sessions of this type in presenting the school was optional, with each dealer, but practically the entire Chevrolet dealer organization responded.

One of the features of the meetings was the use of motion pictures of the "sell" type in presenting the subject of each session. In all, 1,760 films were used. The most novel of these was the one entitled "Mr. Lilliputian Sells A Chevrolet." It depicted a salesman explaining the features of the car to a prospect. Both figures were reduced in size and the car's parts so enlarged that the men crawled into the cylinders to inspect the pistons; into the transmission and differential to discuss the gears; jumped in diving suits into the oil-filled crankcase to examine the crankshaft; and, using a listening instrument, peered into the instrument panel controls, spark plugs, steering wheel, shifting lever and other parts while these were being explained to the purchaser. Many dealers have asked permission to retain the film for future use in training their salesmen and illustrating the car's advantages to prospective buyers.

To Teach At Paradise Inn.

Miss Ruth Ward, dancing teacher, announces that she will conduct her classes at Paradise Inn at Cedar Point, instead of at the Knights of Columbus hall as formerly announced.

JUDGE WHITE — JUDGE RUSSELL

(Editorial in Biloxi-Gulfport Herald)
No opposition has been heard of anyone to the candidacy of either the Hon. Judge of this district, Hon. Walter A. White, nor of the Chancellor, Hon. D. M. Russell. Even if there were any it would be as if it were not, so unanimous is the view of the people and the bar that they fit precisely into their respective offices and duties and no experimentation, however "noble," is desired.

The fact that both of these gentlemen are from the Coast, live in the extreme southern edge of the district, are from the same county and virtually from the same town, does not affect in the slightest the generous appreciation, good will and sound judgment of the people who they have served so steadily, wisely, impartially and ethically. Both are men of education, legal training and experience, patriotic, honorable and industrious. Hence, a change would be hurtful to public interest if not a positive loss.

All these things—the attitude of the people, the bar, the general satisfaction, the entire absence of opposition—evidence a happy judicial situation in South Mississippi which justifies our consulting with other districts where ambition, inefficiency, common strife or factionalism may rob the people of our own congratulating our incumbents and ourselves.

These two judicial positions have more power and have more to do with the happiness and welfare of the people on their own health, than the President of the United States. To uphold them is a duty, to approve is a pleasure.

The Echo joins heartily in the tribute paid to Judge White and Judge Russell. Both men have honored the benches where they have presided in Hancock county and in a community where so many fine judges have served in circuit and chancery court, these two gentlemen have but added to the glory of justice as administered here.

C. of C. Visitors.

LARGE STILL WAS CONFISCATED NEAR LAKESHORE MONDAY

Sheriff Jones Headed Party
Which Found Complete
Distillery—Arrest Chas.
Schwartz.

What was said to be the largest and most complete illicit distillery ever to be raided in Hancock county was confiscated Monday by federal and county officers near Lakeshore and Charles Schwartz, 34-years old, was arrested on charges of violating the eighteenth amendment.

The plant was reported found in Schwartz's smoke house with 300 gallons of mash and a quantity of whiskey. The still was destroyed Monday afternoon in the Hancock county courthouse yard here, it was reported.

Schwartz, whose residence is in the Lakeshore settlement, was convicted of manufacturing liquor in Louisiana in 1928, it was said. The raid was made by Federal Agents Robert Buck and E. M. Hoggan, assisted by Sheriff J. C. Jones and Deputy Sheriff Schell of the Hancock county force.

In another raid a small still and a quantity of liquor was found in the same settlement in the loft of Elmer Johnson's residence, it was reported.

RAMON NAVARRO SINGS SIX SONGS IN "IN GAY MADRID"

Six new song hits of unusual appeal and charm are to be heard in Ramon Navarro's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring talking picture, "In Gay Madrid," which will be at the A. & G. Theatre, Sunday and Monday, June 29-30.

Five world famous concert and popular composers combined in creating these striking musical numbers especially for Navarro's splendid singing voice. They are used in conveying the interpretation of the plot of the Spanish romantic classic from which the picture was screened under Robert Z. Leonard's direction.

Noted Composer Engaged
Three of these songs were written by Xavier Cugat, noted Spanish musician and orchestra leader, in collaboration with Herbert Stothart and Clifford Grey, one of America's foremost operetta composition teams. These songs are "Dark Night," "Let Me Give You Love" and "Santiago." The other songs, in lighter vein, retain all the romantic charm of the old world atmosphere in which they are placed, were written by Roy Turk and Fred E. Ahlert, who crashed into the talking picture field with their "Mari-lune" numbers. These songs are "Into My Heart," "Wine, Woman and Song" and "Smile Comrades!"

Chorus of 50 Voices
In several of these numbers Navarro is aided in heroic rendition by a massed chorus of fifty trained voices as well as tilting orchestral support, the blending of exuberant proportions. The tender love scenes are sung by Navarro with only guitar accompaniment as a tinkling background.

ATTEND PARTY IN GULFPORT FRIDAY

A number of members of the Bay St. Louis chapter of the Eastern Star attended the birthday party given by the Coast chapter No. 51, O. E. S. at the Gulfport Masonic Temple Friday night. Those going from the Bay were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osinach, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. H. U. Carty, Mrs. Velma Bragg, Mrs. W. S. Speer, Mrs. Josephine Schmidt, Mrs. Niles Cruthirds, Misses Ruth Schreck, Irma Koch, Miriam and Levia Engman. Everyone attending dressed as children as this was a "kids" party. In the program Mrs. Carty sang and Mrs. Osinach recited. Miss Irma Koch made the presentation of the basket of flowers to the hostess chapter which the Bay chapter gave. In the contest for the best costume, Mr. Osinach won the "boys" costume.

Injured In Accident

Clem Weston of Logtown, president of the Weston Sand and Gravel Company, suffered a most painful injury to his mouth when he was injured in an auto accident Thursday of last week on the Old Spanish Trail. He was enroute to Bay St. Louis to attend a meeting of the state gravel dealers when the accident occurred. He was treated at the King's Daughters' Emergency Hospital. His mouth was cut from nose to chin. He is able to be out but it will be some days until the wound is healed, stated Mr. Arceneaux.

Three companies are seeking the privilege of bringing natural gas to Bay St. Louis for fuel use, according to the three applications received for franchises in the city, Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., stated this week. One of the applications was received from a Jackson, Miss., company and the other two from Monroe, La., he said. Either franchise guarantees to bring natural gas here within a year, the mayor said.

"The city commissioners have been working on this project for over two months and we believe that we shall be ready to let the franchise by the first meeting of the board in July," Mayor Traub stated.

The people of the city have been much interested for some time in seeking gas for the city and this information given out by Mayor Traub will meet with hearty approval, no doubt.

CONTINUED GROWTH DAIRYING EVIDENCED BY CREAM STATIONS

Number in State Increases
From 148 in 1929 to 180
In 1930, Providing Important Link in Chain
Of Dairy Markets.

Milk and cream stations operated for the convenient handling of farmer's dairying products are now being successfully operated in forty-nine counties of the State and have considerably increased during the past twelve months, according to a report of Dairy Progress issued by J. C. Holton, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Commonly recognized as the smallest and least expensive unit in the milk and cream manufacturing process such stations have the advantage of being enabled to operate at a relatively low cost and at the same time to extend cash markets for milk to areas not producing milk in sufficient quantities to profitably support a milk manufacturing plant. "Were it not for cream stations it would be difficult indeed to bring about desired dairy development," says Mr. Holton. "The dairy plants cannot profitably operate until milk is received in considerable volume. The farmer, on the other hand, cannot produce milk until assured of a reliable cash market. In stand-off the milk and cream stations representing a limited investment, requiring a minimum of skilled help, and operated from one to six days per week as conditions require, enables the parent plant to reach out an arm to take care of the newly developing dairy areas until production becomes sufficiently large to permit the introduction of larger plants."

"A total of 180 milk and cream stations are now operating in forty-nine counties of Mississippi and in many of these counties the dairy farmer's only outlet for his dairy products. Some of these cream station counties are just beginning in the dairy business. Some of them have been producing milk in ever-increasing quantities for a number of years. Farmers of Groveside produced almost 200,000 pounds of butterfat last year, all of which was sold to manufacturing plants outside of the county. Three stations in Copiah county produced 380,000 pounds of butterfat during 1928. Seven stations in Pontotoc county produced 218,000 pounds of butterfat and 200,000 pounds of milk. In Union county produced 218,000 pounds of butterfat. Milk products constitute a substantial source of income to the farmers of these four counties yet neither of the counties has a milk manufacturing plant and without the cream stations here might be no market available."

MAKE TRIP TO MOBILE

E. J. Arceneaux, of the Arceneaux Super Service Station, and Milton Phillips motored to Mobile on Wednesday to see the new Bantam Car, the American Austin. Mr. Arceneaux says that the car proved more than all he had expected of it and more. The new car is really a miniature one with four cylinders, gets 40 miles to the gallon of gas and is capable of making 60 miles an hour, being of 7 horse power. Mr. Arceneaux and Mr. Phillips had the pleasure of riding in the car. The car demonstrated was a coupe and could easily pass under the average man's arm when out stretched.

Messrs. Arceneaux and Phillips left Bay St. Louis at six in the morning, spent two hours in Mobile and were home for lunch at 12 o'clock. They enjoyed the trip very much, stated Mr. Arceneaux.

NOT-A BAD IDEA.

There is some talk arising from the suggestion of Congressman John C. Garner, veteran Democratic leader in congress, anent the division of Texas into five States. Such a division would result in adding eight more members to the Senate, whereas there are only two now representing the vast area encompassed in the borders of the Lone Star State, and every one of the eight would most assuredly be Democrats. Representative Garner says that the consent of congress would not be necessary as Texas was granted authority, upon its admission to the Union 84 years ago, "to form new states of convenient size, not exceeding four in number, and in addition to the said State of Texas." When it is considered that Texas has an area of 265,869 square miles; is four times bigger than all the New England States; would make 220 states the size of Rhode Island, 54 the size of Connecticut and six the size of New York, it may readily be realized that its division is advisable for several reasons.

CHARACTER AND ABILITY COUNTED

Hon. Dwight W. Morrow ran like a scared wolf and beat his opponents in his race for the Republican senatorial nomination in New Jersey by the greatest plurality ever accorded a candidate of his party in that State. He advocated repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, but we are by no means assured that his pronounced "wetness" is responsible for his nomination. His high character and recognized ability as a statesman are what won for him. And right here we are bold enough to prophesy that he will be the Republican nominee for the presidency should he express a desire for the honor, however much the present occupant of the White House may wish to have another term.

VOTERS USED THEIR HEADS.

Graft, corruption and every form of crookedness was recently uncovered in the municipal government of Atlanta, Georgia, and when the ballots cast in last Thursday's primary were counted results showed that the present administration had lost by an overwhelming majority, every official offering for reelection being defeated. The taxpayers of the Georgia city have set a good example which should be followed, not only by other cities where graft and crookedness permeates official circles, but in State and county administrations everywhere.

A QUESTION HARD TO DECIDE.

A 20-year-old girl out in Los Angeles is fighting the States' plan to operate on her so she can never have another child. She is Betty Frierson, alias Betty B. Frazier, and the mother of a 2-year old boy. Her mother and sisters side with the authorities in their efforts, to have her sterilized, fearing that she will bring into the world more babies out of wedlock. In such a case are you with the State or the girl? The Echo confesses the question is one about which it hesitates to express an opinion.

COURT DECLARATION CHANGES BELIEF.

We read in the papers that the Women's National Committee for Law Enforcement says it "believes that under the present law the buyer of liquor is equally guilty with the seller." May be such belief prevailed prior to the United States supreme court's recent declaration to the contrary.

ALL FOR "BOBBY."

Georgia, and all the South for that matter, is proud of "Bobby" Jones who last week was declared international golf champion by virtue of defeating the crack players of England, France and the other countries having representatives in the matches played at Hoylake, England.

The Jackson Daily News wisely remarks: "A two hundred pound woman knows she has a fat chance of getting thin."

Mose D. Landau, a prominent attorney of Vicksburg, died suddenly Saturday afternoon while playing golf.

The agricultural interests of these United States are not sending any resolutions of thanks to Herbert Hoover and the G. O. P. for the "relief" which was promised but not given them.

King Carol II is more or less perturbed these days as his "lady friend" with whom he spent the five years of his exile in France, threatens a return to the Roumanian capital. "There will be a hot time in the old town" if she makes good her threat.

Four suits, seeking a total of $120,000 damages have been filed in the circuit court of Hinds county, against two Jackson druggists by victims of "fake paralysis." The complainants aver that the druggists sold them an "impure" and adulterated fluid, known as extract of ginger or Jamaica ginger and by drinking same they became partially paralyzed. We have serious doubts about the "fake" victims being awarded anything like the amounts sued for.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN

Some fourteen months must come and go before the 1931 primary election is held to nominate State, district and county officials, yet every day comes news of the announced intention of men who will be candidates for the various jobs which are to be filled.

The Echo believes that a campaign stretching out over so long a time is nothing less than unfortunate, as the people are entitled to a rest from political turmoil and bickering. However, since the ball has been opened and promises to be in full swing long before it should, the voters will have ample time to study the qualifications and fitness of all candidates from governor to beat constable. If they make a mistake in the election of any official the fault is theirs. They have in recent years paid dearly in making their choice of officials in many instances. Graft, corruption and scandal has been rampant and the order of the day in both high and low officialdom, and The Echo believes there is a well-founded determination in the mind of every honest elector to choose in the coming primaries men of proven honesty and ability for every office to be filled.

The Jackson Daily News concludes a splendid and timely editorial bearing on the early opening of the State campaign thusly:

Our advice to voters, as the campaign opens, may be summarized thusly:

First: Insist on having your best citizens sent to the legislature, men who are not cursed with factionalism or demagoguery.

Second: Pick practical business men whenever possible. Let the lawyers stay at home and practice law for awhile. It will at least be an interesting experiment in government.

Third: Carefully measure the ability and character of every man who seeks political honors.

Fourth: Don't vote for a man because he happens to be your friend. All of us have very undesirable persons whom we regard as friends, but it is no reason why they should be put in office.

Fifth: Above all things, don't send your nuts, cranks, rabble rousers, and eccentrics to the legislature merely to get rid of them at home.

Sixth: When a man solicits your vote, there should be some specific questions. Make him tell you pointedly just what principles and policies he advocates.

Seventh: Beware of the man who makes loud-mouthed promises when common sense tells you they cannot be fulfilled.

Eighth: The business men of Mississippi, especially should wake up to a realization of the fact that they are dodging a serious responsibility; that they cannot expect to have good government unless they manifest an active interest therein, and use influence to see that only first-class men are elected to office.

It will be a battle royal in Mississippi next year. Make up your list of favorites carefully, and mark off all the undesirable.

FAKE ADVERTISING SCHEMES

From time to time there have come to Bay St. Louis men—and some women, too—who solicit, and secure money for advertising schemes which are absolutely worthless, and just why our business people "fall" for such is a mystery The Echo is unable to solve.

During the more than a third century that has elapsed since The Echo was established, not hundreds but thousands of dollars have been contributed by citizens to the promoters of such advertising schemes, but they seem unable to resist the smooth-talking individuals who paint in glowing colors the advantages and results which flow from the investment of $5 or $10 in a card printed on a circular that never reaches the eyes of the general public from which the business man or concern can expect patronage. Such methods of soliciting trade and customers possess not a whit of merit, and having been "taken in" so often it does seem that no further encouragement should be given the promoters of that class of advertising.

No individual or firm engaged in any line of business is under any obligation to spend money for which no reasonable return can be expected. The "fly-by-night" solicitor of advertising who promises a harvest of new business and scores of customers through his method of inducing more trade knows full well that it is worthless, but he is out for the "long green" and is utterly indifferent as to whether the "suckers" business is increased or not. When the expected results of such advertising fail to materialize, the solicitor is far away and busy laughing in his sleeve at the thought of "what fools these mortals be" whose money is jingling in his pockets.

An exchange now lying on our desk gives the following very timely advice to those who have been, or may be, taken in by promoters of such fake advertising schemes:

As long as business men fall for these fake advertising schemes just as long as the smooth talking boys clean up and there are business men that fall for every one that comes along.

Local printing plants do all they can to discourage these birds and charge business houses for the same type of printing, but the slicker pays because they can clean up a nice pile in just a little while.

Just the other day one of these birds dropped into a local job printing office, and what he wanted, but he said he could get up any kind of advertising card and clean up fifty dollars in a day or so. Just why supposed-to-be careful business men will "pump out" from $2 to $10 to have their names printed on 50 to 100 cards is more than we can understand. For this amount they could secure a newspaper advertisement which would be read by thousands of folks.

But it is the business man's money and he can spend it any way he pleases.

An up-States exchange wisely says: "Stop advertising and you stop business." We have observed that the business man or concern of any sort failing to make use of advertising has no business to stop. Both are dead and don't know it.

LOCAL SIDELIGHTS

GOOD BOOSTER ALWAYS REFRESHING.

Leo E. Kenney, New Orleans business man is a thorough and consistent booster for Bay St. Louis and backs his faith in this section by his work.

There is no evidence more telling of a man's backing a community than when he buys real estate, buying every scrap of the place, and makes it his home.

Mr. Kenney lives in Bay St. Louis because he likes it. He has no commercial or other pecuniary interest in the fact that while he has no financing concern here, he voluntarily joined the Chamber of Commerce and is one of the most active members. There are others, too, who live here and are in business elsewhere, and some too, who have joined the Chamber of Commerce for civic and patriotic reasons, but a better booster—none more than Leo E. Kenney.

ASKING TO ABATE THE DUST NUISANCE.

A number of property holders and residents of one of the principal side streets of the city recently met at the home of one of the number and discussed the necessity of abating the dust nuisance—one of the most annoying and disintegrating influence of all elements. It was argued since the street represented perhaps one of the groups of largest taxpayers that surely relief should be forthcoming; that the expense of operating a sprinkler, although comparatively small, would be justified. It was further argued that since so much tax was collected from this street it should at least have been paved. Lack of hard-surfacing is primarily the cause of so much dust.

While the meeting was right and the relief sought was timely, the manner of procedure was wrong. It would have been better to have assembled at the City Hall, meet the mayor and commissioners and discussed the subject first handed officially and thus intelligently. Dollars to doughnuts the relief sought would have been forthcoming instantly.

STATE RAISES PAY FOR WORKERS.

Clerks and others who carry out the elections of county and State will hereafter receive more pay, $3 per day whereas only $1.00 was allowed. However, election commissioners will receive the same as heretofore, $3.00 per day, not more than $30.00 for any one election.

Here is the new law, quoted verbatim from section 6078 of the new code, under head of "Pay of Election Officers," and will go into effect November 1, 1930.

The commissioners of election shall be entitled to three dollars each for every day actually employed in the performance of their duties, not to exceed ten days for one election; the managers, clerks, and election bailiffs shall each be entitled to three dollars for each election; and the manager or other person, who shall carry to the place of voting, away from courthouse, the official ballots, ballot boxes, poll books, and other necessities, shall be allowed three dollars for so doing; and the manager or other person who acts as return officer shall be allowed three dollars for that service, all to be allowed by the board of supervisors, payable out of the county treasury.

CONSTRUCTIVE SUGGESTIONS IN TALK.

That was an excellent talk made by Walter J. Gex, before the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club last week along the lines of major improvements that would redound inestimably to the benefit of this City and immediate territory.

The building of a bridge across Bay St. Louis proper near the mouth of Jordan river, where the crossing is narrowest, connecting the main shoreland with that of Pine Hills, in Hancock county, would place the Pine Hills hotel and project practically in Bay St. Louis, rather than where it is at present isolated in vast open space. Mr. Gex said Pine Hills connects, associates itself, as it were, with Pass Christian when the project was open and ready for business. But fifteen miles away from Pass Christian was too far to capitalize and the physical distance to travel far to overcome, ten miles or more.

From Bay St. Louis R. R. depot to Pine Hills via proposed bridge would be only a matter of minutes, besides visiting this city would be an attraction. Our people, at the present time and in the proper way (that time being now) should be busy in the premises and put Pine Hills on the map. The proposed bridge would do it.

GAS AS FUEL IS ALWAYS DESIRABLE.

Mr. Gex also dilated on the getting of gas carried into Bay St. Louis from the other side of the Coast line. He said it had been piped to Henderson Point and seemingly could be brought over this way. Our thousands of summer visitors, and local permanent residents, as well, would use gas for cooking in summer and gas for heating in winter. Gas is a recognized standard over the country and it would be no experiment here. The idea is to make Bay St. Louis not only a more attractive place to live, but a better place and one where convenience invites and economic conditions would tend to hold.

STRAND THEATRE, GULFPORT TO REMAIN CLOSED SUNDAYS

Following instructions from the management, the Strand Theatre in Gulfport was voluntarily kept closed Sunday. No attempt was made to open it and there is no intention on the part of the management, so far as now known, to open it in the future. The Strand during the past several months has been operating on Sundays under the sponsorship of the Joe Graham Post of the American Legion on a percentage basis.

RELATING TO BIRTHS IN MISSISSIPPI PRIOR TO NOVEMBER 1, 1912

By Felix J. Underwood, M. D., State Health Officer

The State Board of Health was authorized by the Legislature to keep records of all the births and deaths occurring in this state. This law went into effect November 1, 1912.

Thousands of requests have been received by the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health for records of births that occurred prior to November 1, 1912. The State Board of Health desiring to render a service to the people in this important matter sought the advice of the Attorney-General relative to the question of allowing such births to be recorded in the Bureau of Vital Statistics. Having received a favorable opinion from him, the State Board of Health, on October 15, 1924, passed a Regulation authorizing the filing of records of births that occurred prior to November 1, 1912. Thousands of special blanks were printed for this purpose and due publicity was given to the people of the state. Strange to say, less than 1,000 births have been recorded under this Regulation and most of these have been filed for the purpose of making claims of various kinds, for obtaining passports and other purposes.

Since this opportunity for recording births has not been taken advantage of to any appreciable extent except in case of emergency where it was done for purely personal and selfish reasons and since the State Board of Health has had reasons to regard many of these records as inaccurate, and in a few cases has suspected that the same were spurious, it has been decided that unless the people of the state take advantage of this excellent opportunity to file the birth records of children born prior to November 1, 1912, the regulation will be cancelled by the end of this year if not earlier.

In all cases where both parents are still living, or one parent and the attending physician, or one parent and a very near relative who was living in the community when the birth occurred, these blanks should be immediately called for and the birth records prepared and filed before it is too late to have such an important matter attended to.

A MORNING PRAYER.

The day returns and brings us the petty round of trifling concerns and duties. Help us to play the man, help us to perform them with laughter and kind faces. Let cheerfulness abound with industry. Give us to go blithely on our business all this day, being as to our hearts as to our hands, and content and undisturbed, and grant us in the end the gift of sleep.

—Robt. Louis Stevenson.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

By W. F. BOND
The regular annual meeting of the County Superintendents of Education will be held in Jackson the week beginning Monday, July 21. At this meeting the new school legislation, the duties of county superintendents, the finances of the county school system, and the educational program in general for the state will be discussed.

All those who qualified to make the race for county superintendent three years ago, may have their licenses renewed so as to qualify them to make the race next summer if they so desire.

The meeting will be held at Mill-saps College where board and lodging may be had at a most reasonable rate. All county superintendents not attending school away, will of course be present. The meeting will close at noon Friday, June 25.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Carroll have opened their summer home at Bay St. Louis for the warm season and with members of their family are at the resort for the greater part of each week. And with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, too, are their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Burrows Johnson.

—Mrs. George B. Irvine, formerly of New Orleans, but recently of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting at the summer home of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bettison at Henderson Point, Miss. Later in the season, Mrs. Irvine will sail from New York for an extensive visit on the continent and the British Isles.

—Mr. and Mrs. John J. Maxwell have opened their summer home at Waveland where they will remain for the summer. Mr. Maxwell is prominent in real estate circles in New Orleans and has a host of friends in both that city and on the Coast. He will spend the week-ends at Waveland with his family.

—Junior Breath and Ernest Erwin left Sunday morning on a motor trip to Florida and word has been received from them that they have already visited at Tallahassee, Jacksonville and Daytona Beach and are having a wonderful time, including sight-seeing and surf bathing in the Atlantic Ocean. They expect to return home about the end of this week.

—Mrs. Casper Maurig, left Monday morning for Sherman, Texas, with seven other sister members of the W. O. W. Ladies Circle to attend the convention of that order in Sherman. Mrs. Maurig wired her family Monday night stating they had arrived in Alexandria, La., and that the roads were splendid.

—Mr. John Hollingsworth, prominent lawyer of New Orleans, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Vesey and family at their beautiful home in Pineville, just north of Bay St. Louis. Hollingsworth and Vesey are old friends and enjoyed an interesting round over the Pine Hills course Saturday. Mr. Vesey, like unto "John D." except for age—while carrying out doctor's orders had to play in the shade of an old umbrella which did not affect his game as he shot an even 90. Mr. Hollingsworth visits the coast quite often and his friends hope that he will carry out his old made threat of locating on the Coast and building a summer home—of course at Bay St. Louis.

—Very often, in fact several times each week, some friend of The Echo asks why mention was not made of this or that thing in the paper, little thinking that it is a matter of impossibility for us to gather every item of news which might be of interest to our readers. To insure publication of any item of news, whether it concerns the going or coming of visitors, friends or relatives, the building of improvements, or the thousand and one other matters which readers of The Echo may be interested in, inform the office by phone or drop us a few lines by mail giving us the necessary details on which to base a correct report.

—We now have Hose Mending Service. Reasonable prices and quick service. Jos O. Mauffray.

—Mrs. Emily Russell of New Orleans is at the home of her niece, Mrs. S. S. White, in Union Street, where she will remain for a short stay. Mrs. Russell has made several visits to the Coast in the past few years and always praises its beauty and attractive homes.

—Mrs. Chas. A. Gordon while motoring to New Orleans Monday afternoon was narrowly missed when the car in which she was riding hit a bad place in the road throwing her off the seat and on to the floor of the car, wrenching her back. She has been confined to her bed and is under the doctor's treatment.

TRAVEL SIDELIGHTS INTIMATE ECHOES FROM ROTARY AT CHICAGO

The world is represented at Chicago this week. Sixty-two countries have delegates attending the twenty-fifth anniversary of International Rotary. There are more than twenty thousand delegates here, and it is in a measure quite a polyglot crowd, that is, in the overseas section of the hotel, located in the exhibition hall of Hotel Stevens. Spanish and French is freely spoken. The delegates from New Zealand, the couple with their young lady daughter, told me they had traveled 12,000 miles to get here, that they had landed at San Francisco after a voyage of three weeks on water. The lady of the couple spoke French fluently, delightfully, deliciously. The gentleman from Czechoslovakia spoke English with foreign accent. However, most delegates from continental Europe speak French, not only the world's diplomatic language, but one of the most popular. The life is at home with French, speaks it quite fluently, and delegates were wont to ask questions and speak French with someone who knew the language.

CHICAGOANS ARE HOSPITABLE SET.

Aside from the convention for visiting Rotarians, which means activities and interests galore, there is entertainment, levity, and abundant. There is seemingly no end to entertainment. Men and women alike are stationed in the different hotel lobbies and ever solicitous as to care and comfort of visitors. Cordial and hospitable with the warm of a true Southerner. Can I pay them better tribute? Chicago is a city of culture, and we have been entertained at the House of Friendship with many musical and dramatic numbers by various clubs. The music clubs, folk lore club, Chicago Concert (vocal) club, have given distinguishing renditions.

The Rotary spirit of service above self, and he who serves best profits most, is in the very atmosphere. It is a contagious and very good contagious at that.

A little more Rotary in our daily lives and in our business would be of mutual benefit to all concerned.

Rotary speaks a universal language. It is the same in China and Japan as in Chicago, in Bay St. Louis or anywhere else.

CALIFORNIA AND TEXAS WELL REPRESENTED.

These two States are here in full blast. The hot hands red for Texas, and gold for California, attracts every body. Arizona, too, is quite prominent in numbers and picturesque in appearance.

BRO. PETER IN CHICAGO AT CONVENTIONS.

Bro. Peter, our own President-elect is here and a very popular figure wherever he may be. He is generally well acquainted and friends gather around him.

Registered at Hotel Palmer, he is not only seen there, but frequently in the House of Friendship or lobby of Hotel Stevens or Hotel Sherman.

I met him in the lobby of the latter place this Monday morning. He was surrounded by acquaintances from Lake Charles and other Louisiana points.

Bro. Peter is here as official delegate to two conventions—International Rotary and the Sodality of the United States, also in annual convention of the convention he plans to leave here for the far-off northwest Pacific Coast, thence down coastwise to Sierra Madre, California, where he will visit his mother. He will have traveled approximately five thousand miles before he will reach good old St. Stanislaus at Bay St. Louis again.

WILL ROGERS, HUMORIST IS LIKABLE FELLOW.

I met and had quite a chat this morning with inimitable Will Rogers, a real fellow and one one met you never forget. He is quite nice looking and I wonder why his every picture is a caricature? Possibly the artists exaggerate him with all that is funny and draws his physiognomy accordingly. He said since I was from Mississippi he felt he must know me at once, for one of his best friends, Pat Harrison, was from that State. He paid Pat Harrison a fine tribute and said he was one of the few Senators in the service who had any sense.

Now get this please. He said the people sent to Congress were and must be of the same kind as the people who sent them there since they made the selection and elected.

Webster, Mistake Was Honest. It was that an honest mistake you committed the other day in your front page bulletin about the Webster who wrote the dictionary? You know you got your Websters mixed.

"Well, the joke is on me, Moreau; I thought there was only one Webster, didn't know there was Daniel and Noah—you know both those fellows. Websters spelled their names the same way."

"How is my friend Jim Thompson of the Item?" he asked.

MRS. BRYAN ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

Mrs. John Bryan of North Beach Boulevard was the gracious hostess Wednesday at a delightful luncheon bridge at her home. Four tables of guests were present for this happy occasion. The following was the color scheme in all appointments and summer flowers in this chosen color were used in decoration. Following the delectable luncheon bridge was the diversion. When scores were counted it was found that Mrs. Larry Maloney had won first prize, Miss Carrie Lorch, second and Mrs. Wm. B. Schmidt, consolation. Those present were: Mesdames Milton D. Phillips, S. D. Siler, Joe Chalona, Larry Maloney, H. C. Glover, E. J. Leonard, Wm. B. Schmidt, George E. Picher, J. J. Ritzky, John Welch, Clyde Stocker and Mrs. Leonato, the last two of New Orleans, and the Misses Mary Perkins, Ruth Perkins, Carrie Lorch and Winifred Jaubert, the last of New Orleans.

ENTERTAIN AT MUSICAL AT THE ORIOLE TEA ROOM.

Mrs. Prather McDonald of Nyack-on-Hudson, New York, and Mrs. Orie M. Pollard were hostesses Tuesday night at a most enjoyable musical given at the Oriole Tea Room, North Beach Boulevard, the home of Mrs. Pollard. Seasonal plant crepe myrtle was used in decoration of the reception rooms, creating an atmosphere of charm and delight. Some thirty guests assembled for this evening of music. Miss Anna Louise Nathan, contralto sang, accompanied by Mrs. L. S. Elliott. Mrs. McDonald, a pianist of note, gave an interesting story-music lecture, telling the story of Princess Elizabeth and King Charles weaving in the story of Robert Schuman, composer. The lecture-story was illustrated with many beautiful piano numbers rendered in Mrs. McDonald's mellow style. Following the musical Mrs. Pollard served tempting fruit punch.

BEATTY-SIMON NUPTIALS.

Miss Irene Simon of New Orleans and Dr. Sanford Beatty of Bay St. Louis were married Wednesday night at the Lutheran church at Gulfport, with Rev. Wedg of Pascagoula, officiating. A number of friends gathered at the church to witness the nuptials. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white hydrangeas, daisies and greenery and the pews were marked with white ribbons. The bride was attended by Miss Esther Donaldson of Biloxi. Following the wedding a reception was held at the Donaldson home in Biloxi. The bride was a popular member of the faculty of the Washington school in New Orleans, a position she has held for several years. Dr. Beatty is a chiropractor. Dr. and Mrs. Beatty will reside on Main street, Bay St. Louis.

The old story has delivered its precious burden at the home of the nation's aerial hero, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, a son and heir having been born at 3:45 Sunday afternoon last, an event anxiously looked for by the world since its expected arrival had been announced several weeks since. His lone flight to France and other perilous air voyages he has made, for which he was acclaimed and honored in a manner it has been the good fortune of few men to receive, failed to turn his head, but we are ready to wager our last year's ruble that he will be able to do for him what the homage and plaudits of admiring world failed to do.

So far the murder of that Chicago newspaper reporter is still unsolved, but no effort is being spared to apprehend the gangster who fired the fatal shot. Every member of the underworld gang is under surveillance and sooner or later the crime will be solved. The fastened on the guilty party. The forces of law and order are being backed by the people of the big city and with the aroused indignation of the better element we believe that the rule of the gangsters and corrupt politicians will be broken.

SIMPLE SUGGESTIONS TO DAIRYMEN OF STATE

A and M. College, Miss., June 25.—L. A. Higgins, extension leader in dairying at Mississippi College and M. College, offers a few simple suggestions to dairymen of the state regarding three of the major problems affecting dairy herds during the summer months—flies, weeds, and will fever. Of these he advises:

Flies—"Every dairymen" should use some fly spray on the cows before milking morning and evening; also set traps and otherwise do everything within reason to keep the flies down. It will pay in dollars and cents as well as in saving of temper at milking time. We wish we could tell you a spray 100 per cent satisfactory; we do not know of one."

Weeds—"Many have let the thistle, dock and fennel mature seed in the pasture again this year. We trust you have not. Let's do not neglect the bitter weed and cypress weed which will soon be coming on."

Milk Fever—"Only heavy producing cows are capable of having milk fever. Most of the members of the various associations now have cows which are of sufficient high production to be in some danger at calving time. The old remedy of pumping up the udder is dependable. The Minnesota Experiment Station has worked out the following apparently sure and simple remedy: Inject intravenously 60 to 100 c. c. of a 20 percent solution of calcium chloride. This has, in some very severe cases brought about complete recovery within six minutes."

President Hoover received another jolt at the hands of the senate last Monday when that body voted 66 to 6 for the passage of the bill liberalizing provisions of the World War veterans act of 1924. He was opposed to the bill and used all the power and influence he could command to prevent its passage. He will probably veto the measure and if he does he will get another and even greater jolt.

Primo Carnera, the giant Italian pugilist, fought George Gorrey, American negro heavyweight, in Philadelphia Monday night. The "tar baby" put up a good fight but in the fifth round realized he could not whip the Dago mastodon so he deliberately fouled him, and lost the decision. The latest news coming from Philadelphia is that both fighters have been suspended by the Pennsylvania boxing commission, as there is a suspicion that there was an understanding between them before going into the ring.
